

Napi

Bartoli Design

The flexible solid polyurethane body, which is available in white, anthracite grey, dove-grey, brown, light blue and brick red, is made of a single piece and it stands out for its rounded fold that marks the seam between the seat and the backrest. Thanks to the contrast created between the round legs - in painted metal, chromed metal or in solid wood - and the seat, Napi makes a statement in any surroundings, whether in the contract industry or in the home.
